The Milton Inn

"Milton Inn serves up a delicious slice of paradise" (Lynne Williams, The Baltimore Sun)

"The appeal of the candlelit appointments of the formal dining rooms and the cozier, weathered brick and hunt club ambience of the rooms in the recesses of the inn" express the essence of the Milton Inn. Chef Mark Henry and his staff complement this setting with four star cuisine, "making this a treasure box of a restaurant."

(Jane DeMouy, Bahimore Magazine)

"The combination of architectural charm, rural greenery, and ambitious, finely executed food will keep us coming back to the Milton Inn, a winning corner of paradise found just a country mile from suburbia's borders."

(Lynne Williams, The Baltimore Sun)

Located just three miles from Hunt Valley and only thirty minutes from the inner harbor, the Milton Inn retains the character of Maryland's horse country.

So come to the Milton Inn, and see what the best is all about.

29 August 1991

Attention: Mr. Kleiner, Manager

We would like to preface this letter by stating that the Channel 2 News Team, in our opinion, is top notch and we admire them all very much but we feel that one very deserving member of that team is being slighted.

Approximately 2 years ago, we were the recipiants of a Lionel train set. Since our grandchildren already had several sets, we wanted some less priviledged youngster to have the one we won in a contest. After having watched Tony Pagnotti's caring deeds for the aid of children, we decided to see if he would consider finding a worthy home for the train set. We expected no special treatment as we knew we would be imposing on Tony (after all at Christmas, no one needs one more job) and we planned to just drop the set off if he accepted the chore and that would end it. Tony not only insisted on picking it up, but came to our home with his lovely wife Sandy and, by the time they left, they had really endeared themselves to us. Tony even gave us the feeling that instead of imposing, we were honoring him by allowing him to be the "middle man" and he even found a home where lots of children could benefit--- "Mt. Washington Childrens Hospital.

The purpose of this letter is to ask why "Tony" is never included in your slogan ads "A Friend You Can Turn To"? Your ad emphasizes being a family, yet after many hours of viewing, we have never seen "Tony" included in this family. We feel he works as hard to be a friend as any member of your staff. We grant you that most of Tony's friendship is aimed toward children, but they are people too and it takes a very special friend to become involved with a terminally ill child. We have discussed this with friends and they, like us, cannot understand why he is not featured in your slogan ads. An individual like Tony is not only a credit to your organization, but an essential factor in portraying the good that is done by Channel 2 News Staff. How can you in good conscience omit him from your "Friend You Can Turn To" ads?

Your acknowledgement and response to this letter would be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely.

Bill and Peggy Kelly, 5810 Hanna Rd. Sykesville, Md. 21784

Dear Mr. Kleiner,

On behalf of the Fuel Fund of Central Maryland, Inc. and the Victorine Q. Adams Humanitarian Award Dinner Committee, it is with great pleasure that I extend my sincerest thanks for your participation in this year's event.

Your support will enable the Fuel Fund of Central Maryland to provide thousands of families with energy assistance when the cold months of winter come again next year.

As you enjoy the warm days of summer, enjoy also the warm feeling that comes from knowing that you have helped your fellow citizens.

Again, thank you for your part in a most enjoyable and worthwhile evening.
